THWACKED YET PLAQUED!

That about sums up our (Paul Saunders & my) WBC experience. I got flipped in the final corner of the first CIRCUS MAXIMUS heat and then saw a sure second (and semi-final billet) evaporate into a fifth in the second heat as my +2 driver went cold in evasion attempts from the final corner on -- indeed I went from untouched down to two dead horses, losing a whole turn cutting one free. Lost a MONSTERS RAVAGE AMERICA heat to Mechamonster no less (Oh! the shame!). Did manage to win two GANGSTERS games, a heat and a semifinal, to make the finals and earn a 4th (mostly because, against the odds, I wasn't able to bust a x1 joint with four Racketeers in three player turns). We Pauls were in the same squad of Marines that got totally destroyed in the last two areas in PRINCESS RYAN'S STAR MARINES; Paul S did manage a 4th there. Paul S won plaques for best Fremien in DUNE and best 1st Round pts in KINGMAKER. He made the KINGMAKER final, WAR IN 1812 semi-final and the one round of ORIGINS OF WWII, and, since I had to leave early for the GANGSTERS final, he also made the SLAPSHOT semifinals (we were on the same board, otherwise I'd've crushed him). I also got my England invaded by Mark McLaughlin's French in a demo game of his NAPOLEONIC WARS, scheduled to be published by GMT late this year/early next ('came this ' close to having Hasbro publishing it" quoth Mark). The game builds on the WE THE PEOPLE system but uses WAR AT SEA dice to decide battles instead of the battle cards and is playable by two to five players.

Yes, we got thwacked, but we also received plaques, and in PS's case also a Dragonfood certificate from his WIZARD'S QUEST debacle. I did miss out on my heretofore annual "Mon-Star" certificate since my two monsters didn't make it to Hollywood, but then again there's always next year.

EMBASSY BEAT

England - Russia: Help!

Ger-Rus---Czar - Methinks your army in Silesia has wandered a bit far from home. Your troops should have noticed when they passed through towns with paved streets, shingled roofs, and indoor plumbing. Kindly remove them before the locals run out of beer and become unruly!

Turkey to Russia: Now don't you listen to those warmongers in The European Press Pool in Bern. They have no idea what they are talking about. "At what point will the Giant Russian Bear decide he does not need his ally Turkey and decide it is easier to take Turkey out rather than Germany or France..." Germany and France are pushovers. I would be a much harder nut to crack. Besides, I'm the one helping you feast on Austrian centers. You don't want that picnic to end now do you?

Turkey to France: So far you are the only one who seems to like the diplomacy part of Diplomacy. At least in this game. Keep writing. I'll keep writing back.

Turkey to Wormtounge: You do realize it is your prowess at playing Austria that caused us to bunch up on you this time. We couldn't have you winning yet another game as Austria. It hurts the statistics too much.

Turkey to England: Sorry we never really got a chance to chat much. I've been somewhat preoccupied here in the east and you appear to have your hands full too. Maybe next time.

Turkey to GM: I say write all you want in any of the games. You aren't putting any ideas into anyone's head that wasn't already there. (Just next time use somebody other than me for as a suggested entre for our hungry bear.

SERBIA TO GREECE: I finally get a chance for payback against you!

Turkey to Greece: If we are still fighting after this turn it is your fault. If Rumania ends up winning this one as a solo, that too is your fault. I've given up trying to persuade you with logic. Instead I'll just pound on you until Rumania takes my centers from me and waltzes to a solo win.

Turkey to Serbia: Greece will never work with you. Just put him out of all our miseries so we can address the Rumanian threat.

Turkey to Rumania: Now don't take anything I said above as any indication that our alliance is anything less than rock solid. :-) Unless of course you or Bulgaria are sitting right now in VAR, CONE or IZM. :-D

Summer 1522

RAGNOCITTA: Papal forces were caught by surprise as an Austrian army easily entered Rome. BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Veniceal Tribune: Political mess in Italy. Business as usual. Italian parliament is reorganising again. The ruling coalition's large influence from Vienna at this point has made all other Italian parties join forces to stop the leaders from keeping the power. Even external forces with muslim and even French - the old arch-rivals - background has been recruited for the mission. It may be a delicate constellation and it is still yet to be seen that the mercenaries from the east hasn't received a higher payment from Vienna. Papacy, Florence and Venice is for once united, though. But will present resources be enough? This season's elections will show. Perhaps there will be another havoc after this move.

 DEADLINE FOR MOST GAMES IS 1800 CENTRAL TIME 3 Aug 01

The Bottom Line

This is BORIS THE SPIDER, a 'zine dedicated to the play of multiplayer games. BORIS is usually published following the first Friday of the month by Paul & Meg Bolduc, 203 Devon Ct, Ft Walton Beach, FL 32547-3110 and currently has a subscription price of $10.50 for 12 issues in hardcopy ($13 in Canada, and $18 overseas) or $1 by e-mail. A hardcopy sub will also include an E-mail sub. Make checks payable to "Paul Bolduc". BORIS can be reached at (850) 863-9081, or prbolduc@aol.com. If phoning, expect to be greeted by an answering machine. If we're here, not engaged in an epic computer battle or enthralled in baseball, and recognize your voice, you may get to talk to a real human, so don't hang up upon hearing our recorded message (it changes every power outage).

STELLAR CONQUEST

William T. Riker: Awaiting Turn 26 combat. We'll get this moving soon. I'm probably the hold up here, but it may be that one of you thought default orders applied but I didn't.

Please expedite your orders. I'd like to finish "Willie" soon. Coming when "Willie" reaches Turn 36,

"Kurzon Dax". We have at least two applicants, others apply soonest.
